

Term Life and Critical Illness Cover Individual Policy Summary

This policy summary does not contain the full terms and conditions of the policy; these can be found in the policy document.

Who are the insurers?

Life Cover is underwritten 100% by AM Trust at Lloyd's Syndicate 44.

Critical Illness cover is underwritten 100% by AmTrust Europe Limited.

Can I take out this cover?

To be eligible for the cover on the start date you must:

- be over 18 and under 55 years of age; and
- be living permanently and lawfully in the UK.

The policy can be renewed up to the age of 68 (Life Cover benefit only) and 61 (Critical Illness benefit only).

You may also include your partner, subject to the relevant premium being paid. Children are only eligible for term life cover under this policy.

What happens if I take out cover and then change my mind?

You may cancel the policy by writing to Assura at 86 Gloucester Place, London W1U 6HP within 30 days of the start date or the day you receive your documents if it is later, provided no benefit has been paid and receive a full refund of any premiums paid. You may then cancel the policy at any time but we will not refund any premium paid.

Privacy and Data Protection Notice

AmTrust Europe Limited and AmTrust at Lloyds Syndicate 44 (the Data Controllers) are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy in accordance with the current Data Protection Legislation ("Legislation"). Below is a summary of the main ways in which we process your personal data, for more information please visit our website at www.amtrusteurope.com and www.amtrustatlloyds.com.

How we use your personal data

We use the personal data we hold about you for the purposes of providing insurance, handling claims and any other related purposes (this may include underwriting decisions made via automated means), for offering renewal, research or statistical purposes and to provide you with information, products or services that you request from us. We will also use your data to safeguard against fraud and money laundering and to meet our general legal or regulatory obligations.

Sensitive personal data

Some of the personal information, such as information relating to health or criminal convictions, may be required by us for the specific purposes of underwriting or as part of the claims handling process. The provision of such data is conditional for us to be able to provide insurance or manage a claim. Such data will only be used for the specific purposes set out in our notice.

Disclosure of your personal data

We disclose your personal data to third parties involved in providing products or services to us, or to service providers who perform services on our behalf. These include our group companies, third party administrators, reinsurers, reinsurance intermediaries, insurance reference bureaus, credit agencies, medical service providers, fraud detection agencies, loss adjusters, external law firms, external accountants and auditors, regulatory authorities, and as may be required by law.

International transfers of data

We may transfer your personal data to destinations outside European Economic Area ("EEA"), Where we transfer your personal data outside the EEA, we will ensure that it is treated securely and in accordance with the Legislation.

Your rights

You have the right to ask us not to process your data for marketing purposes, to see a copy of the personal information we hold about you, to have your data deleted (subject to certain exemptions), to have any inaccurate or misleading data corrected or deleted, to restrict the processing of your data, to ask us to provide a copy of your data to any controller and to lodge a complaint with the local data protection authority.

Retention

Your data will not be retained for longer than is necessary and will be managed in accordance with our data retention policy. In most cases the retention period will be for a period of seven (7) years following the expiry of the insurance contract, or our business relationship with you, unless we are required to retain the data for a longer period due to business, legal or regulatory requirements.

If you have any questions concerning our use of your personal data, please contact The Data Protection Officer, AmTrust International – please see website for full address details.

What cover does the policy provide?

Life Cover

The Life Cover provides a guaranteed cash sum up to a maximum of £100,000 if you die during the term of cover. If you are aged over 55 at time of death then we will only pay up to a maximum lump sum benefit of 50% of the sum assured on your Schedule of Insurance.

Critical Illness Cover

The Critical Illness provides a guaranteed cash sum up to a maximum of £50,000 in the event that you suffer one of the specified critical illness conditions, for the first time during the policy period.

The specified list of critical illness conditions covered under this policy are:

- Bacterial Meningitis
- Cancer
- Coronary Artery by-pass grafts
- Heart Attack
- Kidney Failure
- Major Organ Transplant
- Multiple Sclerosis
- Stroke

All these conditions have specific definitions and limitations, which are fully set out in the policy wording under Section B of the policy wording.

How the benefit works?

In the event of a Critical Illness claim the Life's sum assured will be reduced. The Critical Illness lump sum will be deducted from the Life sum assured. The remaining sum assured will be paid out to you in the event of your death during the lifetime of the policy.

Please see your certificate of insurance for confirmation of your benefit amount.

Please see table of Benefits and examples below.

Example cases

- A) Policyholder aged 25 takes out £100,000 Life Cover. The policyholder makes a Critical Illness claim. A lump sum of £50,000 is paid out. The Life Cover lump sum has now been reduced to £50,000.
- B) Policyholder aged 52 takes out £50,000 Life Cover. The policyholder makes a Critical Illness claims. A lump sum of £12,500 is paid out. The Life Cover lump sum has now been reduced to £37,500.

- C) Policyholder aged 56 has £50,000 Life Cover. The policyholder does not make a critical illness claim throughout the lifetime of the policy. The policyholder dies and a lump sum of £50,000 is paid out to the insured's estate.

Are there any limitations on the benefits?

There is an exclusion for any claim that arises out of any medical condition that existed (including treatment, monitoring, referral, consultations or whilst undergoing tests) in the 3-year period prior to the start date of your policy. This exclusion will not apply if you remain symptom free and do not need to seek treatment or medical advice for a continuous period of 24 months.

What am I not covered for under the policy?

The following are some of the key exclusions however you can see the full details of the exclusions under 'Exclusions' in Section A & Section B of the policy wording.

We will not pay a Life or Critical Illness claim as a direct or indirect result or consequence of:

- a pre-existing condition
- deliberately self-inflicted injury (unless you are trying to save someone's life) or an attempt at suicide.
- taking alcohol or drugs, unless a doctor has told you to do so (but not for treating drug addiction).
- nuclear contamination, biological contamination or chemical contamination, war (whether declared or not), act of foreign enemy, invasion, civil war, riot, rebellion, insurrection, revolution, overthrow of a legally constituted government, explosions of war weapons or any event similar to one of those listed. Please note, for clarity: We will pay benefit for treatment required as a result of a terrorist act providing that terrorist act does not result in nuclear, biological or chemical contamination.

We will not pay a Critical Illness claim as a direct or indirect result or consequence of:

- Your failure to seek or follow medical advice
- Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS or HIV) or AIDS Related complex (ARC)
Medical operations or treatments, which are not medically necessary

How long does the policy run for?

This policy lasts for a period of 12 months from the start date and is reviewable* annually. The premium rate you are charged at the start date of your plan is guaranteed by the insurer not to change for 5 years. Your cover will end when the first of the following happens:

- you die;
- your policy is due for renewal after you reach the age of 68 (Life cover only) and the age of 61 (Critical Illness cover only)
- you stop permanently residing in the UK,
- you or we cancel this policy as shown in the policy document; or
- you stop paying your premium, whichever is earlier.

*Reviewable means that the terms and conditions can be changed annually and after the first 5 years of cover the rate can also be changed. There is no guarantee that cover will continue to be provided year on year. If the insurer decides to change the Terms and Conditions or not to provide you with a new policy this will be because of changes to all policies or the product has been withdrawn. No changes or withdrawal of the policy will be as a result of your own personal circumstances. Any changes or withdrawal will be communicated to you at the contact details we have been provided for you at least 60 days prior to any change or withdrawal.

How do I claim?

If you need to make a claim, please write to Compass Underwriting Ltd at: 50 Mark Lane, London EC3R 7QR or you can phone the claims desk on free phone 0800 032 7775 (please note that calls are recorded) or go to www.getesmi.co.uk to get a claim form.

How do I make a complaint?

We always try to provide an excellent standard of service. But, if you want to complain it is important you know we are committed to providing you with an exceptional level of service and customer care. We realize that things can go wrong and there may be times when you feel that we have not provided the service you expected. When this happens, we want to hear about it so that we can try to put things right.

Who to contact: so that your complaint is dealt with as quickly and efficiently as possible, you will need to make sure that:

- you are talking to the right person; and
- you are giving them the right information.

When you contact us

- Please give your name and phone number.
- Please give your policy or claim number and the type of policy you hold.
- Please explain the reason for your complaint clearly and briefly.

Step one – making your complaint

Details of Lloyd's complaints procedures are set out in a leaflet "Your Complaint – How We Can Help" available at <http://www.lloyds.com/complaints> and are also available from the above address.

Step two

If it is not possible to reach an agreement, you have the right to make an appeal to the Financial Ombudsman Service. This also applies if you are insured in a business capacity and have an annual turnover of less than £2 million and fewer than ten staff. You may contact the Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, London E14 9SR. Telephone: if calling from a landline 0800 023 4567 or if calling from a mobile 0300 123 9123. Fax: 020 7964 1001. Email: complaint.info@financialombudsman.org.uk

The above complaints procedure is in addition to your statutory rights as a consumer. For further information about your statutory rights contact your local authority Trading Standards Service or Citizens Advice Bureau. Full details are shown in Section 13 of the policy wording.

Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) Platform

Alternatively, if you purchased your insurance online, please note that you can, if you wish, also submit your complaint via the Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) Platform set up by the European Commission. This service has been set up to help residents in the European Union (EU) who have bought goods or services online, get their complaint resolved. You can access the ODR Platform by clicking on the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>

This does not affect your right to submit your complaint following the process above. Please note that under current rules the European Commission will ultimately redirect your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS).

Would I receive compensation if the insurer was unable to meet its liabilities?

Lloyd's insurers are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme, if they cannot meet their obligations. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. Most insurance contracts are covered for 90% of the claim with no upper limit. You can get more information about compensation scheme arrangements from the FSCS (7th Floor, Lloyds Chambers, Portsoken Street, London E1 8BN) or visit www.fscs.org.uk
